Spiritual Blueprint Adjusted for the New Era

PHASE I: Mercury will collect the important spiritual connections and awareness from February 18th through March 5th, as events culminate to set the stage for the changes associated with this retrograde. Mercury reaches the furthest forward motion that it can, stretching the link between the Sun and Mercury that has an approximate 18 degrees limit. Mercury out in front is uncovering the spiritual elements that are subject to revision; rethinking, and reassessing many issues, situations and decisions. It is during these events that you have Phase I situations that will ultimately require additional information and adjustments before issues are complete.

PHASE II: Mercury reaches 29 Pisces on March 5th and turns retrograde. This begins the process of our orbit moving faster than Mercury, which gives us new information that pushes us to run to keep up with the events. This gives us many situations to deal with and begins the process that makes us feel situations are out of control. Pisces brings in the focus of Divine connection, with our intuition receiving a lot of information. Mercury seemingly moving backward from our perspective becomes a time that we are mentally challenged because of situations that are occurring in the area of our life designated by the placement of Pisces is pushing us to listen intuitively to the directions for transition during this time. The areas of focus are shown within our personal birth chart. To understand the focus of these challenges provides solutions by listening on an intuitive level instead of reacting to situations and causing more challenges by our own reactions. Having the strength of Divine connection and our intuitive guidance to choose our response to act rather than react becomes the optimum approach to these times. Bringing forward the intuitive solutions helps to negate the Mercury retrograde phenomena.

PHASE III: Once Mercury turns direct at 16 Pisces on March 28th, the corrected version of Phase III begins. Our orbit and Mercury's is aligned and in sync again. Blending the new information that emerged during Phase II into a revised fusion of intuition, new events unfold, and the evolution of our stage occurs. Our pathway and journey veers us into the right transport in the cosmic Grand Central Station as new directions unfold revisions to our journey. The spiritual essence guiding our new pathway reflects the core essence as aligned with our spiritual purpose. Transparency of our spiritual essence is the overarching theme for this year as this retrograde shifts our spiritual blueprints to reveal our journey into the Uranus in Taurus Era.

Mercury retrograde in Spiritual Blueprints adjusted to reflect our Journey into the Uranus in Taurus Era. 2019 is a THREE universal year and March is universally a SIX month, which gives us a new level of creativity to bring into the year. Thinking outside the box and trying different avenues becomes the key to the THREE year of 2019. March brings in the importance of balance. With the SIX focus we will address many situations and circumstances that are at odds or out of sorts that need to be resolved. These problems are also the stepping stones to bring harmony and balance into our life.

With the Mercury retrograde in Pisces, from March 5th through March 28th, the issues of our spiritual essence, inner awareness and Divine connections come into focus to solve and bring into balance. Pisces rules our inner spiritual essence, which is invisible to the outside world, yet encompasses everything we do. This inner essence will be the empowering energy that begins to change the outside circumstances to align with our spiritual blueprints. This Mercury retrograde coincides with the shift of Uranus out of Aries and into Taurus, creating a New Era, which begins on March 6th.

March shifts our spiritual blueprints during this Mercury retrograde at the same time our new pathway is created from the summation of our efforts and attitudes from the Uranus in Aries Era. Balance will be achieved, by the Mercury retrograde in Pisces, from March 5th through March 28th, which will shift our spiritual blueprints and revises our direction, especially as Sun connects with Neptune on March 6th, and Mercury retrograde connects with Neptune on March 24th.

Chiron (our spiritual savings account earned from our efforts) collects our motives, efforts, attitude and drives along with our accomplishments. Chiron connects with Mercury in Aries on April 19th, at 3 Aries, which opens up the results of our efforts to set the pathway to the transition of our new journey. Chiron brings our efforts to pave the way for the Uranus in Taurus Era.

The Uranus in Taurus Era begins on March 6th, with the pathway infused through the collection of our words, actions and motives used during the Uranus in Aries phase, from March 2011 to March 2019. Our new pathway is created from the summation of our efforts and attitudes. While Uranus was in Aries, we had to be a singular energy to determine what the True Self was capable of doing. We might have had people around us, but our accomplishments were completely because of our own motives, ethics, efforts and actions.

Spiritual Blueprint Adjustments for the New Era

Shifting into the New Dynamic Era

During this Mercury retrograde in Pisces, an important aspect of Mercury square Jupiter comes into play and occurs three times during this Mercury retrograde phase. Jupiter in Sagittarius aligns us with our goals, living our beliefs and integrates our true philosophy into our life. Mercury retrograde creating a square to Jupiter pushes us to step up to the next level. Squares are like stairs, we are pushed to take a step up. As Mercury brings information forward that illustrates our spiritual awareness, we can no longer maintain the old life or the old way of life. Prompting us to align with our beliefs, philosophy and revise our goals, information comes along to see our Grand Central Station ticket and to realize that our journey is changing. Mercury created a square to Jupiter on February 22nd, March 15th, and on April 12th. These key dates become the major shifts that prompt us to make decisions that open the doors of opportunity to make the changes needed.

Spiritual Blueprints change to reflect the journey into the new Uranus in Taurus Era

With the Mercury retrograde in Pisces, from March 5th through March 28th, the issues of our spiritual essence, inner awareness and Divine connections come into focus to solve and bring into balance. Pisces rules our inner spiritual essence, which is invisible to the outside world, yet encompasses everything we do. This inner essence will be the empowering energy that begins to change the outside circumstances to align with our spiritual blueprints. This Mercury retrograde coincides with the shift of Uranus out of Aries and into Taurus, creating a New Era. The Uranus in Taurus Era begins on March 6th, with the pathway infused through the collection of our words, actions and motives used during the Uranus in Aries phase, from March 2011 to March 2019. Our new pathway is created from the summation of our efforts and attitudes. While Uranus was in Aries, we had to be a singular energy to determine what the True Self was capable of doing. We might have had people around us, but our efforts and accomplishments were completely because of our own motives, ethics, efforts and actions.

How people respond is very different. From one side of the spectrum many seemed to complain that they were given too much, that too much effort was required and the situations were not fair. The attitude of entitlement created a lot of blame and anger, as the drive toward ease (and victimhood) became the hallmark of this side of the spectrum.

The response from the other side of the spectrum, was very different. Many had to rise up, with little or no help, determine what needed to be done, scaled the cliffs and sheer walls of situations carrying a very heavy load. The focus was on using every ounce of effort and will power to get as much done as possible, while helping others along the way. Rising up to accomplish all that was needed, expanded an attitude of humility through seeing how much more needed to be done.

Balance will be achieved, shifting and setting the new stage during March and April. With the efforts, actions and attitudes from the Uranus in Aries phase, two sides to the spectrum and everything in between becomes visible. The Mercury retrograde in Pisces, from March 6th through March 28th, shifts our spiritual blueprints and revises our direction. Chiron (brings in our savings account earned from our efforts) collects our motives, efforts, attitude and drives along with our accomplishments. Chiron connects with Mercury in Aries on April 19th, at 3 Aries, which opens up the results of our efforts to set the pathway to the transition of our new journey. Chiron brings our efforts to pave the way for the Uranus in Taurus Era.
